Sir:

RESPONSE

In response to the Examiner's communication of February 24, 2003, applicants elect the species where a compound containing a metal element is not present.

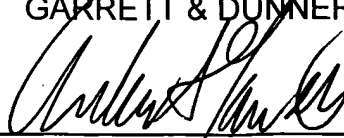

It was believed this was inherent in applicants previous election of a specific thermoplastic polymer but if this was not clear to the Examiner, applicants apologize for any inconvenience.

If there is any fee due in connection with the filing of this Response, please charge such fee to our deposit account 06-0916.

Respectfully submitted,
